

Conservation Commission – Public Hearing
April 24, 2023

The Conservation Commission is looking in to having easements placed on some of the larger town-owned parcels. This would protect our town-owned land from being developed in the future.